

APPEALS FOR ORPHANS CHRISTMAS FUND

In an attractive three-color illustrated poster, which he is sending out this week to all the Odd Fellows lodges in the State, Secretary R. G. Elliott, of the Grand Lodge of the order is making an appeal to the Odd Fellows of Kentucky to raise a fund to insure a Merry Christmas to the 150 orphan boys and girls who are inmates of the Odd Fellows Children's Home of Lexington. Besides a large picture of "Old Santa," the poster is ornamented with the pictures of four handsome girls of the Home, who have about reached the age limit to go out in the world to make their own living, and who are now being given a business education at a leading business college. The communication closes with this appeal: "Will you do something big this Christmas? We want every lodge in Kentucky to make a big donation out of your treasury for Christmas, and any money over what it costs for Christmas will be spent for other pleasures for the boys and girls that we do not have funds for, and part of the money given will go to help give any other boy or girl about to leave the Home an opportunity to get a business education to fit them to make good, useful citizens. Send all donations to R. G. Elliott, grand secretary of the order, Lexington, Ky."

LINKS BAD VISION TO DELINQUENCY.

Almost all criminals, insane persons and paupers have eye trouble in some form, according to Reginald C. Augustine, international president of the American Optometric Association at the educational convention of the Kentucky association at The Tyler, recently, in Louisville.

"Examinations performed on the bodies of murderers showed that every one had fault in vision," Mr. Augustine said. "Much of the trouble could be averted if the parents were not prejudiced against glasses."

Statistics given by the optometrist show that six out of every ten persons should have their sight corrected, and that only three of these six are now wearing glasses.

Persons living an out-door life usually have good eyes, but man has moved "indoors" from the jungle too recently to be acclimated to the new conditions, he declared.

"Solution of the eye trouble of today lies in the willingness of parents to have the sight of their children corrected," he said. "When this is done in early youth, many of them will be able to lay aside the spectacles in later life."

PARIS MOTORISTS MAY PROFIT BY THIS.

The Cleveland, Ohio, Safety Council has made a list of eighteen deadly sins that motorists have been known to commit in violating traffic ordinances. These are furnished the new citizens' police auxiliary, which has been organized to report auto drivers who are seen breaking the rules of the road. The sins are:

- Drove on wrong side of street.
- Created hazard by excessive speed.
- Recklessly drove in front of moving street car or other vehicle.
- Recklessly passed street car while taking on or discharging passengers.
- Passed street car to left.
- Pulled in front of approaching street car or other vehicle.
- Drove through safety zone.
- Did not slow up near pedestrians or vehicle at crossing.
- Slow moving vehicle failed to keep as close to curb as possible.
- Passed another vehicle to right.
- Failed to signal change of direction when slowing down or stopping.
- Started from curb into traffic without notice.
- Did not sound horn or slow down when nearing crossing or curb with obstructed view.
- Cut corner.
- Driver continued on after accident.
- Front or rear lights out.
- Glaring headlights.
- Front or rear license not plainly visible or missing.

MANY KENTUCKY STUDENTS AT U. OF K.

Report that a large percentage of the student body of the University of Kentucky this year was composed of students from other States and foreign countries were denied in a statement issued by Registrar Ezra L. Gilles. He declared that twenty-four States, including Kentucky, and two foreign countries—Russia and Australia, with one student each—are represented in the student body. One hundred and seven Kentucky counties have representation, no students being recorded from Anair, Allen, Clinton, Greenup, Jackson, Leslie, Lyon, Martin, Metcalfe, Monroe, Owsley, Powell and Rowan counties.

Bourbon county has twelve students in the University; Scott county, twelve; Harrison county, twenty-three; Montgomery county, eleven; Clark county, eighteen; Nicholas, eleven; Fayette county, 203.

FIRST KENTUCKY WOMAN ANNOUNCES FOR OFFICE

Miss Stella May, cousin of Governor Morrow, is the first woman to announce her candidacy for County Clerk in Kentucky. She is an avowed candidate for clerk of Pulaski county. She served as deputy in that office, and is now a clerk in the Workman's Compensation department at Frankfort.

STILL TAKING JOY OUT OF LIFE

The flavoring of home-made Christmas plum pudding, mince meat and brandied cherries and peaches with alcohol spirits is in violation of the prohibition enforcement law and such foods are liable to seizure, it was stated in Washington at the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

REMARKABLE HOME BY FOUR-TEEN-YEAR-OLD.

Miss Josephine H. Ewalt, fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. H. Ewalt, of near Paris, a student at the Paris High School, has developed a remarkable literary talent. In addition to being an accomplished reader Miss Ewalt has composed a number of poetic gems, the latest being reproduced below:

America's Shame
(The Election of Harding)
Surely the American people
Know not what they have done.
They have thrown away the very cause
For which the war was won.

The voices of thousands of dead
Call from the graves in France.
Were unheeded by the people
Who threw away the chance.

A plan to avert all war
Was devised by our chieftain wise.
But a band of plotting partisans
Killed it in its rise.

Our honorable chieftain
Pledged America's word for support.
But the American people betrayed him
Making sad his breaking heart.

They have let America seem
Treachery in the eyes of the world.
In order that at our President
Slander and lies might be hurled.

He bore aloft a banner
With "Peace on Earth" inscribed in gold.
And he planned the League of Nations
Of which those words were the soul.

Oh! shame to the American people
Who have trampled that banner down,
In choosing to follow his enemies
Rather than Wilson's efforts crown.

Alas! when they shall awaken
To the grave mistake they have made,
But then the time will be past
And it can never be gained.

But long after those are dead
Who defeated him, Oh! Shame!
Our Wilson's name will shine
—Josephine H. Ewalt.

BUY RED CROSS CHRISTMAS SEALS

The dread white plague destroys 150,000 human lives every year in the United States. Tuberculosis spreads its darkening clouds over millions of people in this country alone. Many of these lives are made well again by the presence of poverty, for tuberculosis strikes hardest and most frequent in the homes of the very poor. Their helplessness, too often, is due to their helplessness.

In every community there are many victims of the disease in need of home care and instruction as to how they can cure themselves and protect others.

Protect you and your loved ones. The organized fight against tuberculosis needs your aid.

It has been made very easy for you to aid in the battle.

The least you can do is to invest in Christmas Seals, the money going to the public health nursing service, for the work of free dispensaries, and open-air schools. Your money will go to aid human beings, who, more than any other, need aid.

Stick a Christmas Seal on every letter, on every package!

It is your Christmas gift to the victims of tuberculosis!

NO MARKET FOR KENTUCKY WOOL CROPS

Because there is no market in this country for the pool of 600,000 pounds of raw wool which it holds, the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation is formulating plans to ship the material to Austria to be made into cloth, Geoffrey Morgen, secretary, announced. The mills of Austria are closed down for lack of raw material. The cloth, according to the secretary, would be sent back to this country to be placed on sale. He said that tariff and transportation costs would be nullified by cheap labor in Austria. Most of the wool is stored in Louisville warehouses.

The salesman with confidence holds his head high and his chin up; his shoulders are square and his back straight, and his action is as active as his brain.

A CHRISTMAS WISH

Wherever there is sickness,
May Santa Claus bring health;
Wherever there is poverty,
May Santa Claus bring wealth;
Wherever one is weeping,
May tears to smiles give way;
Wherever sadness hovers,
May joy come Christmas day.

To every heart that's aching,
May peace and comfort come.
And many an outlook rosy
Supplement each out look glum;
May friends now separated
Soon reunited be,
And everyone find gladness
Upon this Christmas tree.
—Edgar Guest.

GIVE YOUR HOME BAKERS A SQUARE DEAL

Do you know Mr. Citizen, that—
2,016 loaves of foreign made bread were used last week in Paris, while only 2,350 loaves of Paris bread are used here each week?

Just think of it! Are you being fair to your home bakers? And do you know, Mr. Citizen, that—
Your home bakeries give employment to home people?
Your home bakeries pay an annual license fee to operate here?
Your home bakeries pay taxes to the city government?
Your home bakeries keep their money in home banks?

And do you know that if it was not for the business these bakeries do outside of Paris they could not stay in business here?

ARE YOU FAIR TO YOUR OWN TOWN?

If better bread could be made the Paris bakeries would make it. When you order bread, DEMAND PARIS BREAD. If your grocer don't handle it, demand that he does handle it.

BUY A TITAN TRACTOR NOW---ON TIME

Refund Guaranteed if Price is Lowered By May 1, 1921

You Get the Benefit of Lower Prices

While there is nothing to justify a lower price on TITAN 10-20 for the coming year, we will be glad to give you the benefit of any downward readjustment the next six months may bring. As your dealer we appreciate your continued patronage and will guard your interests. Therefore, with every TITAN 10-20 tractor purchased from us between now and May 1, 1921, we will give our written guarantee that if the International Harvester Company of America reduces its price on TITAN 10-20 tractors on or before May 1, 1921, we will refund the purchaser the amount of such reduction.

TITAN is the Biggest Value You Can Find in the Tractor Market

From the day the first TITAN 10-20 was placed on the market, it has been the leading three-plow tractor of the world. Over seventy million dollars have been invested by farmers in TITAN 10-20 tractors. No other three-plow tractor has ever approached this record. Such a record could not possibly have been achieved, nor could the TITAN have held its place at the top of the list, if the genuine merit of the tractor had not deserved it.

Farmers over the United States and the world have demanded and bought tens of thousands of TITANS and are being served faithfully by them year after year.

TITAN price is at rock-bottom for TITAN quality and value. It has always been held at low point by unbroken quantity production and factory economies. And if that price is lowered by next May we will hand you a check for the difference at once.
